

1. Drawing For Art—What Happens on Event Day?

Hello friends!

Drawing For Art is getting closer. To help you make the most of the event, see the short checklist that we've put together to help you get organized for event night.

Before the Event

Purchase a Jump the Line ticket for $20 – this is an opportunity for a chance to win a free art draw ticket! The winner will be announced after the first break. That individual will also JUMP THE LINE and get to make the very next selection of artwork.

On Event Day—From 2 to 5 p.m.

Your Drawing For Art event-to-go package will be ready for pick up, including:

- Charcuterie board
- Bottles of bubbly
- DFA Program

The Event Starts at 7 p.m. Sharp!

- Log in to Facebook and join us in our private Drawing For Art group.
- Keep your DFA program handy to follow along. Each piece of artwork has a number assigned to it. You may even want to create your own shortlist of artworks that you're interested in to make your choice easier (believe us, it's a lot of pressure when your name is called!).
- Listen for your name! Our fabulous host, Terry Johnston, will be drawing tickets and calling names. Participants will have two minutes after they hear their name called to phone Station Gallery at 905.668.4185 to claim their artwork. If you do not respond within two minutes, Terry will move on to the next name.
- Once you have called us to secure your artwork, follow the instructions for pick up.

- Enjoy the rest of the evening! We know it's different this year, but more than ever we appreciate your support!

After the Event: October 2 to 4, 2020

- You can now come to pick up your artwork at the gallery.
- Some remaining works will be available for purchase onsite for $200. First come, first served applies for those art pieces.

Please contact the Gallery if you have any questions prior to event night.

If you have technical questions in advance of the event, please contact the Gallery today at 905.668.4185. During the event, please call Natasha at 905.243.5462 or Kerri at 289.356.6077.
